

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

We host monthly professional development and networking opportunities with local and statewide speakers presenting a variety of topics from brand management to government relations and everything in between. Additionally, we offer our two-day Northwest Florida Communications Summit as well as special networking events throughout the year including fundraisers and social gatherings. Please contact any local board member or visit our Facebook page for more information.

Northwest Florida Coast Chapter

Welcome to the Northwest Florida Coast Chapter of the Florida Public Relations Association. Our chapter includes all levels of professional communicators – from students and new graduates to seasoned PR professionals. This strong network comes together for support and education through membership meetings, professional development seminars, fundraisers and special events. Most importantly, we proudly host the annual Northwest Florida Communications Summit! This two-day event is packed with keynote speakers, breakout groups, and interactive sessions to educate, empower, and motivate our chapter members and communities.

FPRA is a sound professional investment that opens the door to a world of opportunities, both locally and statewide:

- Accreditation & Certification
- Industry News & Resources
- Leadership Growth
- Peer Networking
- Professional Development
- Professional Recognition
